The core work of The Children’s Society in Birmingham and the Black Country is with children / young people who run away from care in Birmingham and the Black Country. The programme includes the Looked After Missing Persons (LAMP) project, which carries out independent return interviews and provides surgeries and group work in children's homes across the city, and the Building Bridges project, which works with the parents of young people who run away from home using the 'triple P' model. The programme is also delivering the Restorative Approaches pilot programme in children's homes in Birmingham and the Black Country, training staff in residential care homes in restorative justice approaches.

The Children’s Society in Lancashire provides longstanding comprehensive Children’s Rights services for children/young people who are looked after by Lancashire County Council. Plus their Health Advocacy provides children & young people a say with how they receive healthcare. The programme also has independent visitors schemes, which recruit, train and support Volunteers who are then matched with children/young people requiring befrienders. The programme offers a Street Safe Service for children/young people who are victims/at risk of sexual exploitation and those who are missing from/running away from home/care. Its LACES Service (Looking Ahead Careers and Employability Scheme) supports young people who are leaving care to take up employment opportunities. The Youth Contract helps to increase the number of 16 and 17 year olds classed as NEET participating in education, training and employment. We also offer Health Complaints Advocacy Ncompass, which supports any child/young person (0-18 years of age) residing in the Lancashire County Council area who wishes to make a complaint or raise a concern against the Health Services.

The programme works in partnership with Open Road to deliver CHOICES, an Integrated Recovery Management System and Structured Interventions Service providing a single gateway into recovery for clients of all ages and delivering interventions via a specialist community-based service across the county using 1-1, group work and family models. The programme also works in schools, with targeted groups, Social Care and Youth Offending Teams and offers bespoke training to groups and individuals working with young people affected by substance misuse.

Include
Unit 4, Calford House, Wessex Business Park, Wessex Way, Colden Common SO21 1WP
Phone: 01962 711511   Programme Manager: Jenny.Frank@childrenssociety.org.uk

The aim of the Include Programme is to develop a national focus for young carers, their families and those who work to support them. The programme offers information, training and support to both statutory and voluntary sector agencies working to support children and young people who care for parents or siblings who suffer from chronic illness or disability. We campaign for change and promote best practice with central and local government and work in partnership with social workers, teachers and health care professionals to deliver solutions that consider the needs of the whole family. This is achieved through several complimentary strands of work:

- Prevention through Partnership Programme
- Hampshire Young Carers Initiative
- Young Carers in Focus
  Family Inclusion Project including Refugee Toolkit
- Engage Toolkit
- Change for Families Affected by HIV

The Children’s Society in Oxford provides a range of services to refugees, asylum seekers and new migrant children and young people in schools in Oxford. The Education and Advocacy Service offers learning support and academic mentoring in secondary schools. The Volunteer Service places local volunteers in secondary schools to provide in-class support and one-to-one help to young people in secondary schools. The school-based Therapeutic Service provides mental health assessment, consultation support and offers therapeutic support to young refugees who are struggling with psychological distress and trauma through individual, group and family work. And the Parent Support Service works with parents to help them better understand the UK education system and help remove barriers to improve their engagement with their children's schools.

Programme Information : Version May 2014
The Children’s Centres and Nurseries offer a variety of care, learning, play and support groups for 0–5’s and their families including Baby Talk, Baby Clinic and Drop In’s with time to play, chat, learn and relax in a friendly atmosphere. The centres also offer Young Parents Groups for under 25’s, ante natal classes, individual support for families, parent forums and local walkabouts for the community including activities allowing children/young people to grow fruit, vegetables and herbs. With community involvement and a huge variety of practical services the centres provide activities that match the ever-changing needs of families with young children.

The Children’s Society has recently won a new contract to run two of the restructured clusters of children’s centres in Plymouth, and will be retaining two of the previous centres – Nomony and Four Woods – whilst also taking on 2 new centres. Contracts are still being negotiated and delivery will be starting in the summer of 2014.

The Children’s Centres in Swindon work with under 5’s to support families to give their children the best start in life by improving health, education and quality of life. The centres offer a one-stop shop of services with access to health visitors, doctors, dentists, midwives, affordable childcare, family information services, breast feeding support groups and Journeys 2 Work (a training and employment advice service).

WAVES
52 St Mary Street, Weymouth, Dorset DT4 8BJ  Phone: 01305 768768
Programme Manager: Roy.Koerner@childrenssociety.org.uk
The WAVES programme offers advice and guidance to children and young people up to the age of 20 in order to keep them safe from harm. Staff and volunteers work in a variety of ways giving information, advice and guidance on issues such as relationship difficulties, problems at home, bullying, drug and alcohol issues, applying for benefits and finding safe accommodation. Family Mediation, Parenting and Counselling services are offered to parents, carers and young people. The programme also provides ‘Stand By’, an intensive 6-week 1:1 talking therapy and activity service for children and young people who are experiencing difficulties at home or at school. Therapeutic and practical support is also provided to parents and children who have been subjected to domestic abuse.
